O'NEILL IS SEEKING $1.7 BILLION BUDGET

Hospital Addition Is Considered by Advisory Board

A decision has been reached to secure an architect's estimate of costs and a preliminary sketch for a new wing for the Fayette County Memorial Hospital.

This resulted from the meeting Monday night at the hospital of the board of trustees and the 46-member newly enlarged hospital advisory board.

The design for this improvement, reported by the trustees as greatly needed to meet public demands, will be given serious study as soon as possible at a later called meeting of the two boards.

Meantime, it was decided, that advisory board members, will contact as many people as possible throughout the county, to determine public reaction to the general plan (under study) and will report their findings to the trustees.

FOLLOWING the opening of Monday night's meeting, with George Pensyl, president of the trustee board, acting as chairman, there was a general and informal discussion of the whole project.
Most favored some expansion which would provide from 40 to 60 more beds and other needed institutional facilities.

After Miss Christene Evans, hospital administrator, was called upon Chairman Pensyl told the group

Lady Lawyer, Van Doren in New Deadlock

NEW YORK (AP)—Charles Van Doren is having trouble boosting his television quiz show winnings above the $143,000 mark. A lady lawyer, Mrs. Vivienne Nearing, tied him twice Monday night.

It meant Van Doren, a Columbia University instructor, and Mrs. Nearing must compete again next week on NBC's "21" show to break the deadlock.

They'll be battling then for $2-000 a point, four times the normal $500 amount. The stakes are big for both Van Doren and his lady challenger.

If Van Doren loses, he'll be off
the show. In addition, whatever Mrs. Nearing wins will be deducted from Van Doren's total winnings thus far. It could be as much as $42,000 if she happened to shut him out by a 21-0 score.

Neither Van Doren nor his challenger faltered Monday night as each correctly answered several multipoint questions in two games.
They even selected the same question for one game and each came up with the correct answer.

The game is played under rules similar to the "21" card game known also as blackjack.

A subject category is chosen and questions rated in order of difficulty from 1 to 11 are selected by the contestants.

Both Van Doren and Mrs. Nearing, a lawyer for Warner Bros., chose questions of 10 and 11-point difficulty. Mrs. Nearing tied him in one game last week.

Columbus To Go On Daylight Time

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Columbus
City Council Monday night approved daylight savings time for this city, to be in effect from April 28 through Sept. 28. The ordinance was presented a week ago by a committee of 60 persons.

Columbus is the westernmost Ohio city to adopt "fast time." It was not known immediately whether areas close to the capital city would join the movement, long opposed by rural residents.

Ohio GOP Solons Ask Budget Cut

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ohio's Republican congressmen agreed today that a "substantial reduction of the $72 billion budget will be in the best interest of the people of the United States."

The state's GOP delegation in the House made its sentiments known in a statement signed by all 17 members.

The cut, said the statement,
would be in accord with the admonition of President Eisenhower, and Ohio's own secretary of the treasury, George M. Humphrey, that Congress exercise its independent control over spending.

"this is what we are facing. We cannot stand still much longer. The question is "where do we go from here, forward or possibly backward". Let us all speak frankly".

Miss Evans pointed out that a year ago, because of other conditions it was decided to defer asking the public for a bond issue to enlarge the hospital.

She stated that, even then, the greatly increased business of the hospital had necessitated too many patients being cared for in beds in the corridors and other facilities being taxed to capacity. She declared the situation was growing even more serious by the month.

MIMEOGRAPHED copies of the needs presented at a meeting last year, were distributed, showing the improvements sought for almost every department of the institution to overcome the crowded conditions.

The general requirements, it was stated, would call for the need of a hospital increased to 125 bed capacity, in order to give all patients the full scale scientific care due them. Many times this present over-crowded condition has existed to the point where the safety and well being of patients have been, to some degree, in jeopardy.
Service, however, has been maintained which has upheld the good reputation of the hospital, although often under extreme difficulties.

When the question was raised as to the advisability of barring out-of-the-county patients, it was declared by several present that this was not good hospital practice.

"How would we have felt?" one asked, "if any of us were in trouble through sickness or accident, and were taken to a Columbus or some other hospital, only to be told we did not live in that county and could not be given much needed service?"

THE TRUSTEES explained that no definite plans had been drawn, but that many suggestions had been forwarded as to the size and extent of what improvement for greater facilities should be carried out.

There have been estimates, it was said, that a new wing, such as discussed, would cost from $400,000 to $600,000. A 20-year bond issue to

19 Marine Drill Leaders Convicted

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—The Marine Corps reported today, 19 of its drill instructors at the San Diego Marine Corps recruit depot have been convicted in the last nine months on charges of mis-treating recruits.

The report showed drill instructors in some cases were accused of oppressing recruits by ordering them to do extra calisthenics. Others were convicted of putting their hands on recruits. The report did not disclose the number of cases of each type, nor did it detail the punishment imposed. None of the recruits required hospitalization.

The shooting followed an argument over the taking of pheasants
on the Baldrige farm, Prairie
Rd.

There was no immediate indication whether the verdict will be appealed to a higher court.

GOP Senators 'Incensed' As Ike Names Dem as Envoy

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senators
Watkins (R-Utah) and Francis Case (R-SD) called today for an examination of the political and diplomatic background of David K. E. Bruce, nominated by President Eisenhower as ambassador to West Germany.

Watkins said the fact that Bruce contributed $1,000 to 1956
Democratic campaign funds
"raises a question in my mind whether he supports the Eisenhower foreign policies." The contribution, made to "Democratic organizations," was listed on a report of a Senate Elections subcommittee.

"If he was in sympathy with the ideas of Adlai E. Stevenson during last year's campaign, I would have some question as to whether he can fairly represent the policies of this administration," Watkins said.

Case said he thinks "the background of Mr. Bruce, both as to his attitude toward the problems of Germany and the free world and the background of the political cause he has espoused, should

Brothers Held in Slayings

ed in Flushing, N. Y., police station on homicide charges in connection with two holdup slayings. Richard is 22, Roy 19. A third suspect, Robert Van Koski, 20, also was held. Victims include Leonard Brown, 27, a Flushing store manager, and Charles Krauss, 55, found dead in his cab.

Judge Denies New Trial in Patrick Case

A motion for new trial of a civil action in which Mrs. Marie Patrick was awarded $80,000 in damages from George S. Baldrige, slayer of her husband, has been denied by Judge Ferd Bader of Hamilton County.

Judge Bader, by assignment, presided at the trial last December which resulted in a verdict for Mrs.
Patrick, widow of Irvin J. Patrick, former Fayette County game protector.

Mrs. Patrick, who has three small children, sued for $150,000, alleging that the killing of her husband on the opening day of the 1955 hunting season was malicious.

IN HIS RULING, Judge Bader said:

"The court has carefully considered the evidence and the law. . .
and is of the opinion that the verdict of the jury is not against the weight of evidence or contrary to law, and that the defendant has not been prejudiced in any manner by the rulings of the court."

Baldrige, a former Adams County sheriff, is serving a term of one to 20 years in the penitentiary on a manslaughter conviction for the killing.

The shooting followed an argument over the taking of pheasants
on the Baldrige farm, Prairie
Rd.

There was no immediate indication whether the verdict will be
appealed to a higher court.

to report the results, saying it "might influence" other locals in their balloting.

In Columbus, a source close to the CWA said the union does not plan to release any figures on the vote on the new contract until after the final local, Portsmouth, which has the largest membership, concludes its voting tonight.

If the contract and a "back to work" agreement are approved by a majority of the various locals, union and company officials are expected to end the strike formally Wednesday.

J. Curtis Fletcher, CWA national director, said the union negotiating committee had recommended approval of the contract.

Terms of the new contract are not expected to be released until Wednesday.

Ohio Consolidated crews, meanwhile, began the massive job of restoring telephone service to the Portsmouth area.

More than 600 cable slashings have been reported in the 228-day strike and, on three occasions, telephone service was blacked out completely. The union has denied responsibility for the vandalism.

PORTSMOUTH City Council
Monday night enacted legislation declaring a state of emergency.
Police now are authorized to work overtime and thus provide protection to the company crews.

Gov. C. William O'Neill said, however, that if local law agencies fail to maintain law and order while service is being restored, "I shall order the Ohio National Guard into the area to give protection."

No estimate of cost or the time that the repairs will take was available from company officials today.

Last December, when former Governor Lausche called the Legislature in special session to consider the possibility of the state taking over the Portsmouth telephone service, Clare E. Williams, president of the telephone company, estimated it would take three months to completely restore telephone service.

At that time, Williams estimated 10,000 of 17,000 telephones were out of service. He estimated the damage would total $350,000 in cost.

New weekend damages forced a total closing of the telephone system Saturday. A company spokesman commented "that the picture has changed," adding that the $350,000 cost estimate would "not touch" the damage now to be repaired.

State Plans Selling Construction Bonds

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Ohio Sinking Fund Commission has approved a program outlined by Gov. C.
William O'Neill for sale of $125 million worth of highway construction bonds this year.

Bids on the four-step program will be opened March 27 for sale of $32 million worth of bonds. Other bids will be taken on $32 million worth June 15, $31 million worth Sept. 10 and $30 million worth Dec. 4.

O'Neill said the state has on hand about $25 million for capital improvement construction but may act later to sell $30 million worth of bonds for additional building purposes.

Ike Resolution Opposition Hit By Dem Solon

Oregon Senator Fears
'Isolationist' Views
To Prove Harmful

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Neuberger (D-Ore) voiced "grave concern" today over what he called the "isolationist" nature of some other senators' attacks on President Eisenhower's Middle East resolution.

Neuberger cautioned his own party against making "demago-gic arguments" such as he said characterized "reckless Republican attacks" against the Truman administration's use of U.S. troops to defend Korea against Red aggression.

He said that isolationist attacks could wreck "a bipartisan foreign policy founded on internationalism, a strong system of alliances and similar close ties with other free nations."

The Senate meanwhile gave no sign when it will begin voting on the resolution. Opposition could extend consideration of the resolution far into next week unless differences are ironed out shortly.

The resolution would make economic and military assistance available to Middle East nations and would state United States willingness to use armed force if necessary to repel overt Communist aggressions in the area.

IT WAS SUBJECTED to bitter attacks on the floor Monday from Sen. Talmadge (D-Ga.), in his maiden speech as a senator, and from Sen. Jenner (R-Ind.), a frequent critic of administration foreign policy.

These and other attacks prompted Neuberger to say the opposition "seems to be developing now into a wholesale assault upon the internationalist aspects of American foreign policy."

Talmadge denounced the resolution as "an undated declaration of war" and an invitation to "profligate spending" on foreign potentials.

The funds going to some countries, Talmadge declared, "conceivably could go to pay for plant improvements or the purchase of new wives for the royal harem."

Jenner said he saw in the administration resolution a continuation of a plan to "place the military forces of the United States under the United Nations."

"This dream plan has been with us for a long time," Jenner told the Senate. "It has been endorsed by many patriotic Americans, who did not suspect its kindly sentiments covered a subtle and daring Soviet plan for destruction of our military advantage."

Collegian Pleads Innocent in Thefts

MASSILLON (AP)—George Cleveland Bailey Jr., 20, a sophomore at Wooster College, was in jail here today in lieu of $5,000 bond after pleading innocent to robbery charges.

Preliminary hearing for Bailey, accused of several service station holdups, was set for Friday in municipal court. Bailey, whose home is in Baltimore, Md., also is charged with robbery in Canton in connection with a service station robbery there Sunday.

Police here said Bailey was arrested at his rooming house in Wooster early Sunday after he had robbed four service station attendants and tried to rob a fifth in the Massillon-Canton area, getting an estimated $165.

Overseas Trucking Service Underway

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The first overseas trucking service between Philadelphia and European ports got underway today.

The 475-foot Carib Queen, described as the world's largest truck-trailer ship, was due in the Delaware River on her maiden voyage to dock at the Northern Metals Co. piers.

The Carib Queen carries 12 big Swiss and German trailers and 110 imported automobiles, plus some cargo picked up at Bremerhaven.

The trailers carry wines and brandies, machine parts, automobile tires and Swiss cheese, all destined for the New York area.

Israelis Studying Army Withdrawal

JERUSALEM (AP)—The Israeli Cabinet met again today to take up the latest reports from Ambassador Abba Eban on the Gaza Strip — Sharm El Sheikh troop withdrawal dispute.

Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion Monday night won an overwhelming vote of confidence from the Knesset (parliament) on his promise to exact firm guarantees before Israeli troops are withdrawn from the Gaza Strip and Gulf of Aqaba areas.

The vote supporting Ben-Gurion's government was 72-29 after the 70-year-old leader told the la-makers Israel faces its most serious struggle since it fought for existence nine years ago.

"We are standing today with our backs to the wall and we are faced by powerful forces," Ben-Gurion said. "We are fighting against prolonged violations of the U. N. Charter by the Egyptians and their allies which endanger the very foundations of the United Nations."

In a move which some observers regarded as a concession, the prime minister said he was no longer insisting on Israel's demand for establishment of an Israeli civil administration in the Gaza Strip.

"WE WISH, if at all possible, to solve the problem of the strip in full cooperation with the United Nations and we said so from the beginning, on the condition that the Egyptians do not return," Ben-Gurion declared. "We have not retreated from this position."

Israel repeatedly has charged that the Gaza Strip, controlled by Egypt since the 1949 Palestine armistice, was used as a base for

Paint Plant Blast, Fire Hits Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP)—Fifty employees of the Glidden Co. escaped from the firm's plant here moments before explosions and flames erupted Monday night in Cleveland's biggest fire in more than a decade.

Workmen at the plant said they got out quickly when the lights flickered and went out. Company rules require the men to leave when the lights flicker.

Company President Dwight P.
Joyce valued the building at $400-000 and its contents at $2 million.

It was believed an electrical short-circuit may have touched off the blaze.

Paint and varnish were stored in the plant.

Firemen said the blaze, punctuated by exploding drums, started in the basement. Outside, workmen saw flames shooting from basement windows. Despite efforts by firemen, the flames worked upward, and soon orange shafts of flame could be seen spouting from the roof.

Normal operation of the West Side Rapid Transit, whose tracks parallel the Glidden property, was discontinued at the height of the blaze on firemen's advice.

Infiltration by Gangsters Into Labor Unions Probed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McClellan (D-Ark) launched today what he termed a "stupendous" investigation of gangster infiltration of labor unions. He said it may involve 29 or more cities.

McClellan and the Special Senate Rackets Investigating Committee which he heads, chose as the starting point alleged links between racketeers and some Teamster Union officials in Seattle, Wash., and Portland, Ore.

Emphasizing the nationwide scope of the inquiry, McClellan said the committee now has investigators in Philadelphia, Los Angeles, Seattle, Portland, San Francisco, Chicago, Scranton, Minneapolis and New York.

"We have received complaints that appear to have merit from more than 20 other cities," he said. "Investigators will be sent to those cities."

The goal, McClellan said, is to "learn not only which racketeers are present in union and employer associations but also how they came to be there—who sponsored Arab raids into Israeli territory.

Despite the gravity of the Gaza issue, Ben - Gurion added, "the central and historically most important problem is the opening of the Tiran Straits" at the Red Sea end of the Aqaba Gulf.

Egyptian guns in the straits kept Israeli shipping from the gulf prior to Israel's November invasion of the Sinai desert.

Ben-Gurion asserted Israel's right to use force to protect its shipping in the Gulf of Aqaba:

"It is not only in the Tiran Straits that our enemies have designs against our shipping. They can attack our shipping even outside. For this reason I should consider it an important guarantee, and here I am speaking for myself. If it were recognized that the right of self-defense under the U. N. charter would apply to Israel's right to defend her shipping in the straits if it were attacked by force."

Opposition leaders claim Ben-Gurion is preparing the way for a "great surrender."

U. N. Resuming Israeli Debate

Call for Sanctions Getting New Airing

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—
The U. N. General Assembly prepared to resume its debate on sanctions against Israel this afternoon without further delay.

Many U. S. diplomats were convinced Israel's marathon talks with U. S. and U. N. officials had done little toward getting Israeli troops off Egyptian soil.

Impatience grew as reports circulated that Israeli Ambassador Abba Eban had returned empty-handed from his latest trek to Jerusalem for new instructions.

A number of prominent delegates, both Western and Asian, have become annoyed at having to cool their heels while Eban held a series of consultations with Secretary of State Dulles and Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld.

The Middle East debate was postponed twice again Monday while Eban conferred in Washington and at U. N. headquarters.

Arab diplomats campaigned in the U. N. corridors for support to their sanctions resolution.

IT CALLS ON all U. N. members to "deny all military, economic or financial assistance and facilities" to Israel until she quits the Egyptian coast of the Gulf of Aqaba and the Gaza Strip.

Diplomats agreed approval of the Arabs' sanctions resolution still depended mainly on what stand the United States takes, since most of Israel's economic and financial aid comes from America.

The United States has been desperately seeking an alternative to sanctions, which are opposed by congressional leaders of both parties and Britain and France and are demanded by the Arab nations the Americans are courting.

State Spending Figure Hiked By Half-Billion

COLUMBUS (AP)—A two-year state budget swollen by hundreds of millions of dollars in federal highway aid and state highway bond issue money was laid before the Ohio Legislature today by Gov.
C. William O'Neill.

The grand total is a record
$1,705,573,159, about $405 million above state spending for the current two-year period.

But non-highway spending represents only about one-fourth of the big increase.

O'Neill told the lawmakers he delivered his budget message personally:

"You will note that although increases have been recommended for certain departments, such reductions have been made in the requests in other areas that the total increase in appropriations, aside from those which are required by law, is less than 2 1/2 per cent of the budget."

O'Neill told the lawmakers he was presenting them a balanced budget without the use of any of the treasury surplus he said he was estimating "conservatively" at up to $35 million.

IF THE LEGISLATURE wants to use any of the surplus to give state employees a pay increase above the automatic raises provided in the present law, the governor said that is the Legislature's privilege. The O'Neill budget provides for nothing but the automatic increases.

O'Neill said: "The state will remain on a pay-as-you-go basis for the next two years . . . I do not recommend any new or increased taxes."

He recommended this level of state spending from the various funds:

Hospital Addition Is Considered by Advisory Board

A decision has been reached to secure an architect's estimate of costs and a preliminary sketch for a new wing for the Fayette County Memorial Hospital.

This resulted from the meeting Monday night at the hospital of the board of trustees and the 46-member newly enlarged hospital advisory board.

The design for this improvement, reported by the trustees as greatly needed to meet public demands, will be given serious study as soon as possible at a later called meeting of the two boards.

Meantime, it was decided, that advisory board members, will contact as many people as possible throughout the county, to determine public reaction to the general plan (under study) and will report their findings to the trustees.

FOLLOWING the opening of Monday night's meeting, with George Pensyl, president of the trustee board, acting as chairman, there was a general and informal discussion of the whole project. Most favored some expansion which would provide from 40 to 60 more beds and other needed institutional facilities.

After Christine Evans, hospital administrator, was called upon Chairman Pensyl told the group

Lady Lawyer, Van Doren in New Deadlock

NEW YORK (AP)—Charles Van Doren is having trouble boosting his television quiz show winnings above the $143,000 mark. A lady lawyer, Mrs. Vivienne Nearing, tied him twice Monday night.

It meant Van Doren, a Columbia University instructor, and Mrs. Nearing must compete again next week on NBC's "21" show to break the deadlock.

They'll be battling then for $2,000 a point, four times the normal $500 amount. The stakes are big for both Van Doren and his lady challenger.

If Van Doren loses, he'll be off the show. In addition, whatever Mrs. Nearing wins will be deducted from Van Doren's total winnings thus far. It could be as much as $42,000 if she happened to shut him out by a 21-0 score.

Neither Van Doren nor his challenger faltered Monday night as each correctly answered several multiple-choice questions in two games. They even selected the same question for one game and each came up with the correct answer.

The game is played under rules similar to the "21" card game known also as blackjack.

A subject category is chosen and questions rated in order of difficulty from 1 to 11 are selected by the contestants.

Both Van Doren and Mrs. Nearing, a lawyer for Warner Bros., chose questions of 10 and 11-point difficulty. Mrs. Nearing tied him in one game last week.

Columbus To Go On Daylight Time

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Columbus City Council Monday night approved daylight savings time for this city, to be in effect from April 28 through Sept. 28. The ordinance was presented a week ago by a committee of 60 persons.

Columbus is the westernmost Ohio city to adopt "fast time." It was not known immediately whether areas close to the capital city would join the movement, long opposed by rural residents.

Ohio GOP Solons Ask Budget Cut

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ohio's Republican congressmen agreed today that a "substantial reduction of the $72 billion budget will be in the best interest of the people of the United States."

The state's GOP delegation in the House made its sentiments known in a statement signed by all 17 members.

The cut, said the statement, would be in accord with the admonition of President Eisenhower, and Ohio's own secretary of the treasury, George M. Humphrey, that Congress exercise its independent control over spending.

"this is what we are facing. We cannot stand still much longer. The question is 'where do we go from here, forward or possibly backward'. Let us all speak frankly'.

Miss Evans pointed out that a year ago, because of other conditions it was decided to defer asking the public for a bond issue to enlarge the hospital.

She stated that, even then, the greatly increased business of the hospital had necessitated too many patients being cared for in beds in the corridors and other facilities being taxed to capacity. She declared the situation was growing even more serious by the month.

MIMEOGRAPHED copies of the needs presented at a meeting last year, were distributed, showing the improvements sought for almost every department of the institution to overcome the crowded conditions.

The general requirements, it was stated, would call for the need of a hospital increased to 125 bed capacity, in order to give all patients the full scale scientific care due them. Many times this present over-crowded condition has existed to the point where the safety and well being of patients have been, to some degree, in jeopardy. Service, however, has been maintained which has upheld the good reputation of the hospital, although often under extreme difficulties.

When the question was raised as to the advisability of barring out-of-county patients, it was declared by several present that this was not good hospital practice. "How would we have felt" one asked, "if any of us were in trouble through sickness or accident, and were taken to a Columbus or some other hospital, only to be told we did not live in that county and could not be given much needed service?"

THE TRUSTEES explained that no definite plans had been drawn, but that many suggestions had been brought forward as to the size and extent of what improvement for greater facilities should be carried out.

There have been estimates, it was said, that a new wing, such as discussed, would cost from $400,000 to $600,000. A 20-year bond issue to

19 Marine Drill Leaders Convicted

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—The Marine Corps reported today 19 of its drill instructors at the San Diego Marine Corps recruit depot have been convicted in the last nine months on charges of mistreating recruits.

The report showed drill instructors in some cases were accused of oppressing recruits by ordering them to do extra calisthenics. Others were convicted of putting their hands on recruits. The report did not disclose the number of cases of each type, nor did it detail the punishment imposed. None of the recruits required hospitalization.

GOP Senators 'Incensed' As Ike Names Dem as Envoy

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senators Watkins (R-Utah) and Francis Case (R-SD) called today for an examination of the political and diplomatic background of David K. E. Bruce, nominated by President Eisenhower as ambassador to West Germany.

Watkins said the fact that Bruce contributed $1,000 to 1956 Democratic campaign funds "raises a question in my mind whether he supports the Eisenhower foreign policies." The contribution, made to "Democratic organizations," was listed on a report of a Senate Elections subcommittee.

"If he was in sympathy with the ideas of Adlai E. Stevenson during last year's campaign, I would have some question as to whether he can fairly represent the policies of this administration," Watkins said.

Case said he thinks "the background of Mr. Bruce, both as to his attitude toward the problems of Germany and the free world and the background of the political causes he has espoused, should

Judge Denies New Trial in Patrick Case

A motion for new trial of a civil action in which Mrs. Marie Patrick was awarded $80,000 in damages from George S. Baldrige, slayer of her husband, has been denied by Judge Ferd Bader of Hamilton County.

Judge Bader, by assignment, presided at the trial last December which resulted in a verdict for Mrs. Patrick, widow of Irvin J. Patrick, former Fayette County game protector.

Mrs. Patrick, who has three small children, sued for $150,000, alleging that the killing of her husband on the opening day of the 1955 hunting season was malicious.

IN HIS RULING, Judge Bader said:

"The court has carefully considered the evidence and the law. . . and is of the opinion that the verdict of the jury is not against the weight of evidence or contrary to law, and that the defendant has not been prejudiced in any manner by the rulings of the court."

Baldrige, a former Adams County sheriff, is serving a term of one to 20 years in the penitentiary on a manslaughter conviction for the killing.

The shooting followed an argument over the taking of pheasants on the Baldrige farm, Prairie Rd.

There was no immediate indication whether the verdict will be appealed to a higher court.

be carefully considered by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee."

Case said he would be more interested in Bruce's views on Germany than he would in the nominee's political activities.

Bruce, a 59-year-old Maryland resident, served as ambassador to France and undersecretary of state during the Truman administration. He was named by Eisenhower as ambassador to the European Coal and Steel Community and now is a member of the President's board of consultants on foreign intelligence activities.

Sen. Aiken (R-Vt.), a foreign relations committee member, said he and some of his GOP colleagues were "incensed" at the appointment of "another Democratic campaign contributor to an important diplomatic post."

"They ask us to defend Secretary of State Dulles and the President when they are criticized by the Democrats," he said, "but every time there is an important job to be filled they give it to a Democrat."

to report the results, saying it "might influence" other locals in their balloting.

In Columbus, a source close to the CWA said the union does not plan to release any figures on the vote on the new contract until after the final local, Portsmouth, which has the largest membership, concludes its voting tonight.

If the contract and a "back to work" agreement are approved by a majority of the various locals, union and company officials are expected to end the strike formally Wednesday.

J. Curtis Fletcher, CWA national director, said the union negotiating committee had recommended approval of the contract.

Terms of the new contract are not expected to be released until Wednesday.

Ohio Consolidated crews, meanwhile, began the massive job of restoring telephone service to the Portsmouth area.

More than 600 cable slashings have been reported in the 226-day strike and, on three occasions, telephone service was blacked out completely. The union has denied responsibility for the vandalism.

PORTSMOUTH City Council Monday night enacted legislation declaring a state of emergency. Police now are authorized to work overtime and thus provide protection to the company crews.

Gov. C. William O'Neill said, however, that if local law agencies fail to maintain law and order while service is being restored, "I shall order the Ohio National Guard into the area to give protection."

No estimate of cost or the time that the repairs will take was available from company officials today.

Last December, when former Governor Lausche called the Legislature in special session to consider the possibility of the state taking over the Portsmouth telephone service, Clare E. Williams, president of the telephone company, estimated it would take three months to completely restore telephone service.

At that time, Williams estimated 10,000 of 17,000 telephones were out of service. He estimated the damage would total $350,000 in cost.

New weekend damages forced a total closing of the telephone system Saturday. A company spokesman commented "that the picture has changed," adding that the $350,000 cost estimate would "not touch" the damage now to be repaired.

State Plans Selling Construction Bonds

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Ohio Sinking Fund Commission has approved a program outlined by Gov. C. William O'Neill for sale of $125 million worth of highway construction bonds this year.

Bids on the four-step program will be opened March 27 for sale of $32 million worth of bonds. Other bids will be taken on $32 million worth June 15, $31 million worth Sept. 10 and $30 million worth Dec. 4.

O'Neill said the state has on hand about $25 million for capital improvement construction but may act later to sell $39 million worth of bonds for additional building purposes.

Ike Resolution Opposition Hit By Dem Solon

Oregon Senator Fears 'Isolationist' Views To Prove Harmful

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Neuberger (D-Ore) voiced "grave concern" today over what he called the "isolationist" nature of some other senators' attacks on President Eisenhower's Middle East resolution.

Neuberger cautioned his own party against making "demagogic arguments" such as he said characterized "reckless Republican attacks" against the Truman administration's use of U.S. troops to defend Korea against Red aggression.

He said that isolationist attacks could wreck "a bipartisan foreign policy founded on internationalism, a strong system of alliances and similar close ties with other free nations."

The Senate meanwhile gave no sign when it will begin voting on the resolution. Opposition could extend consideration of the resolution far into next week unless differences are ironed out shortly.

The resolution would make economic and military assistance available to Middle East nations and would state United States willingness to use armed force if necessary to repel overt Communist aggressions in the area.

IT WAS SUBJECTED to bitter attacks on the floor Monday from Sen. Talmadge (D-Ga.), in his maiden speech as a senator, and from Sen. Jenner (R-Ind.), a frequent critic of administration foreign policy.

These and other attacks prompted Neuberger to say the opposition "seems to be developing now into a wholesale assault upon the internationalist aspects of American foreign policy."

Talmadge denounced the resolution as "an undated declaration of war" and an invitation to "profligate spending" on foreign potentials.

The funds going to some countries, Talmadge declared, "conceivably could go to pay for palace improvements or the purchase of new wives for the royal harem."

Jenner said he saw in the administration resolution a continuation of a plan to "place the military forces of the United States under the United Nations."

"This dream plan has been with us for a long time," Jenner told the Senate. "It has been endorsed by many patriotic Americans, who did not suspect its kindly sentiments covered a subtle and daring Soviet plan for destruction of our military advantage."

Israelis Studying Army Withdrawal

JERUSALEM (AP)—The Israeli Cabinet met again today to take up the latest reports from Ambassador Abba Eban on the Gaza Strip — Sharm El Sheikh troop withdrawal dispute.

Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion Monday night won an overwhelming vote of confidence from the Knesset (parliament) on his promise to exact firm guarantees before Israeli troops are withdrawn from the Gaza Strip and Gulf of Aqaba areas.

The vote supporting Ben-Gurion's government was 72-29 after the 70-year-old leader told the lawmakers Israel faces its most serious struggle since it fought for existence nine years ago.

"We are standing today with our backs to the wall and we are faced by powerful forces," Ben-Gurion said. "We are fighting against prolonged violations of the U. N. Charter by the Egyptians and their allies which endanger the very foundations of the United Nations."

In a move which some observers regarded as a concession, the prime minister said he was no longer insisting on Israel's demand for establishment of an Israeli civil administration in the Gaza Strip.

"WE WISH, if at all possible, to solve the problem of the strip in full cooperation with the United Nations and we said so from the beginning, on the condition that the Egyptians do not return," Ben-Gurion declared. "We have not retreated from this position."

Israel repeatedly has charged that the Gaza Strip, controlled by Egypt since the 1949 Palestine armistice, was used as a base for

Paint Plant Blast, Fire Hits Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP)—Fifty employees of the Glidden Co. escaped from the firm's plant here moments before explosions and flames erupted Monday night in Cleveland's biggest fire in more than a decade.

Workmen at the plant said they got out quickly when the lights flickered and went out. Company rules require the men to leave when the lights flicker.

Company President Dwight P. Joyce valued the building at $400,000 and its contents at $2 million. It was believed an electrical short-circuit may have touched off the blaze.

Paint and varnish were stored in the plant.

Firemen said the blaze, punctuated by exploding drums, started in the basement. Outside, workmen saw flames shooting from basement windows. Despite efforts by firemen, the flames worked upward, and soon orange shafts of flame could be seen spouting from the roof.

Normal operation of the West Side Rapid Transit, whose tracks parallel the Glidden property, was discontinued at the height of the blaze on firemen's advice.

Arab raids into Israeli territory. Despite the gravity of the Gaza issue, Ben-Gurion added, "the central and historically most important problem is the opening of the Tiran Straits" at the Red Sea end of the Aqaba Gulf.

Egyptian guns in the straits kept Israeli shipping from the gulf prior to Israel's November invasion of the Sinai desert.

Ben-Gurion asserted Israel's right to use force to protect its shipping in the Gulf of Aqaba:

"It is not only in the Tiran Straits that our enemies have designs against our shipping. They can attack our shipping even outside. For this reason I should consider it an important guarantee, and here I am speaking for myself. If it were recognized that the right of self-defense under the U. N. charter would apply to Israel's right to defend her shipping in the straits if it were attacked by force."

Opposition leaders claim Ben-Gurion is preparing the way for a "great surrender."

U. N. Resuming Israeli Debate

Call for Sanctions Getting New Airing

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The U. N. General Assembly prepared to resume its debate on sanctions against Israel this afternoon without further delay.

Many U. S. diplomats were convinced Israel's marathon talks with U. S. and U. N. officials had done little toward getting Israeli troops off Egyptian soil.

Impatience grew as reports circulated that Israeli Ambassador Abba Eban had returned empty-handed from his latest trek to Jerusalem for new instructions.

A number of prominent delegates, both Western and Asian, have become annoyed at having to cool their heels while Eban held a series of consultations with Secretary of State Dulles and Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld.

The Middle East debate was postponed twice again Monday while Eban conferred in Washington and at U. N. headquarters.

Arab diplomats campaigned in the U. N. corridors for support to their sanctions resolution.

IT CALLS ON all U. N. members to "deny all military, economic or financial assistance and facilities" to Israel until she quits the Egyptian coast of the Gulf of Aqaba and the Gaza Strip.

Diplomats agreed approval of the Arabs' sanctions resolution still depended mainly on what stand the United States takes, since most of Israel's economic and financial aid comes from America.

The United States has been desperately seeking an alternative to sanctions, which are opposed by congressional leaders of both parties and Britain and France and are demanded by the Arab nations the Americans are courting.

They and who protected them. "WE MUST SEEK to find a way to seal them off permanently from the labor-management movement. Their means of entrance must be blocked."

McClellan said the committee will "give attention to problems inherent in labor-management collusion, underworld infiltration of the labor movement, misuse of union and union welfare funds, suppression of civil rights and liberties of union members by their leaders, conflict of interest and the use of violence, shakedowns and extortions."

He said the investigation now embraces "the carpenters, operating engineers, Allied Industrial workers and a number of other unions" together with some of the employers and employer groups.

He said preliminary investigations show that "in some areas criminals and their accomplices" are attempting to control both labor unions and some employer associations and through alliances with politicians to control vice and other rackets.

State Spending Figure Hiked By Half-Billion

Governor Tells Solons He Can Balance Income With Proposed Outgo

COLUMBUS (AP)—A two-year state budget swollen by hundreds of millions of dollars in federal highway aid and state highway bond issue money was laid before the Ohio Legislature today by Gov. C. William O'Neill.

The grand total is a record $1,765,573,159, about $405 million above state spending for the current two-year period.

But non-highway spending represents only about one-fourth of the big increase.

O'Neill told the lawmakers he delivered his budget message personally:

"You will note that although increases have been recommended for certain departments, such reductions have been made in the requests in other areas that the total increase in appropriations, aside from those which are required by law, is less than 2 1/2 per cent of the budget."

O'Neill told the lawmakers he was presenting them a balanced budget without the use of any of the treasury surplus he said he was estimating "conservative" at up to $35 million.

IF THE LEGISLATURE wants to use any of the surplus to give state employees a pay increase above the automatic raises provided in the present law, the governor said that is the Legislature's privilege. The O'Neill budget provides for nothing but the automatic increases.

O'Neill said: "The state will remain on a pay-as-you-go basis for the next two years. . . I do not recommend any new or increased taxes."

He recommended this level of state spending from the various funds:

General revenue: $895,955,600, up from an estimated $791 million state operating cost in the current biennium.

Highways: $782,612,067.

Liquor department operation: $20,270,000.

Wildlife: $7,607,057.

The big increases aside from highway recommendations:

Schools: $68,650,000, all required by law.

Medical care for the aged: $6,985,000, also required by law.

Automatic pay increases for state employees: $18,207,000, required by law.

State universities: $11,894,000, above the requirements of law.

MENTAL hygiene: $13,978,000 above requirements of law.

State operations, O'Neill pointed out, require only 37.7 per cent of state spending from the general revenue fund. The other 62.2 per cent is spent in subsidies to individuals, like the aged and blind, and local benefits like schools.

Finance Director John Skipton said he increased his estimate of general revenue funds available for appropriation in the next two years by $35 million above receipts for the present two-year bookkeeping period. He explained:

The increase is based on trends in revenue for the last 19 months and on the best estimates we can obtain. We are being more conservative than we need to be."

From general revenues, he said, the state income in the two-year period will be $860 million.

Soon after he took office, O'Neill ordered a reduction in departmental budget requests, some of which he termed "fantastic."

Where the administrative slashes in the requests were made will not be known until the actual budget bill is available.

On Jan. 24, the governor told a news conference that drastic cuts must be made in "fantastic" departmental budget requests.

THE REQUESTS, he said at that time, exceeded the previous biennium by $266 million. Today, O'Neill gave a total of more than $405 million over the figure of two years ago.

At his Jan. 24 news conference, O'Neill declared that if the departmental requests were approved, "it is obvious that vast new taxes would be required to meet them."

The 1955 Legislature, in its regular and special sessions, appropriated more than $1 1/4 billion from general revenue and special funds to operate the state government.

City School Bond Sale Held Up by Legal Counsel

Plans for Additions Studied by Board At Monday Meeting

The Washington C. H. Board of Education was advised by its legal counsel (by letter) that the $645,000 bonds voted last November for a building program "should not be sold until after the work of the Citizens Committee is completed."

The letter from Bricker, Marburger, Ewalt and Barton was read at the board's regular meeting, postponed from Feb. 18, Monday night.

A letter from the Ohio Water Service Co. attorneys in Youngstown also was read. It said "we (the Water Co.) are quite willing to wait until a reasonable time when you solve the difficulties you are facing."

The Water Co. letter concerned the agreement (not an option) of the school board to purchase a 30-acre site at Elm and Willard Sts. for the proposed new Eastside School. Under that agreement, purchase of the tract was contingent upon the approval of the bond issue and sale of the bonds.

The board by official action, accepted the 63-acre tract at the east edge of the city which had been transferred from the Miami Trace school district to the Washington C. H. school district. This was considered a mere formality, in view of the previous action of the county commissioners and city council authorizing the annexation of this area to the city. Known as the Brownell-Gilmore tract, it is now being developed for residential properties.

Richard P. Rankin, father of two of the eight pupils he said live in the city and are now attending Wilson School on a private tuition basis, asked the Washington C. H. board to assign all eight children to the Miami Trace district.

THESE PUPILS, he said he was told, could not be provided transportation by the Miami Trace board, under the law, unless they were officially assigned to Wilson School by the Washington C. H. board. He said parents have been taking their children to and from school since the Miami Trace board's policy statement last Thursday, following the transfer of the 63-acre tract to the city district.

Eleven boys and girls who live in the transferred area are now attending the Eastside School in the city.

The board took Rankin's request under advisement after explaining to him that if the eight pupils living in the city are assigned to the Miami Trace district, the city district would have to pay the tuition. It also was explained to him that the tuition and assignment of pupils made a problem to be worked out by the two boards.

After the board approved the payment of 82 routine bills and the meeting was adjourned, the board members remained to go over detailed plans submitted by Keil & Laughlin, Lima architects, for two-room additions to the Rose Ave. and Cherry Hill schools.

Emphasizing a desire to provide more elementary classrooms as soon as possible, the board went over enrollment figures which showed an increase from 1,282 to 1,336 in the elementary schools since school started last fall.

He was identified by officers as Courtland Earl Johnston, 26. His preliminary hearing on a charge of violating the Dyer Act was set for March 1 by U.S. Commissioner J. Stewart Ake shortly after his arrest Monday. Four men arrested earlier admitted taking part in the thefts, which started a year ago, detectives said.

IT'S SO EASY TO PLACE A WANT AD

State Spending

ment for the two-year period ending next June 30.

The O'Neill budget disclosed that the state had not been met by unexpected expenses during the present two-year fiscal period, would have had a surplus of about $83 million in revenues above spending appropriations.

But the present Legislature must appropriate nearly $54 million to meet its obligations for the current two-year period for schools and care for the aged. These are called deficiency appropriations. They will amount to $22 million for the school subsidy and $12 million for the aged.

After the two deficiency appropriations, an estimated $60 million in surplus will remain in the state treasury.

The $60 million surplus, even after deficiency appropriations, approaches the state record. It was anticipated that O'Neill would draw upon this surplus to balance the 1958-59 budget. Such a precedent was set two years ago when Lausche took $10 million from the previous biennium's surplus to balance his budget.

Lawmakers returned to their eighth week Monday night with a couple bushel bills in their pockets—enough to bring the session total to 689. Among them were measures to:

Bar independent candidates from seeking office on a party ballot for four years.

Include elected state officials under workmen's compensation.

Void common-law marriages.

Allow teachers severance pay for unused sick leave up to 90 days.

Permit teachers to take sabbatical leaves.

Guarantee teachers an uninterrupted 30-minute lunch period.

Lift the $65-a-month top award to the aged and remove the American citizenship requirement (described as an O'Neill administration bill).

Reduce the percentage of voter approval for all tax levies and bond issues to a bare majority.

Hospital Addition

cover such an amount probably would require from five to six tenths of a mill.

Marlyn Riley, former president of the board of trustees, recalled that the first bond issue for the hospital had been seven-tenths of a mill, which now has been reduced to .35 of a mill. The second bond issue for a new west wing, for rooms and beds only, had cost $125,000 over a five-year period at .25 of a mill. This will be completely paid out this year, he said.

HE ALSO called attention to the fact that bonds issued for the hospital had reached a point in reduced taxes brought past payments, whereby a new issue, such as suggested, would not increase taxes beyond the amount originally charged against taxpayers for the issues now being paid off.

Members of the hospital's medical staff, present, also answered questions and presented their views.

It was pointed out that the hospital here has paid its own way without a maintenance levy since it was opened, something which no other county hospital in this region or in many other states has done.

It was stated that financial aid from the federal government, for improvements needed, had been applied for, but there was no assurance as yet that it would be granted, owing to the many applications from other places without any satisfactory hospital service.

Bloomington Lions Give Party for Ladies

Monday night was Ladies Night for the Bloomington Lions Club—and a dinner dance was held at the Country Club here.

Seated at the dinner tables were 127 Lions, their ladies and guests from the Washington C. H., Good Hope, Sedalia and South Solon clubs.

There was a brief business session presided over by President Wilbur Snapp, and after that, "fifty-fifty" dancing for the rest of the evening.

Music for the dance was provided by Vic Tooker and the Boys from Wilmington. Clarence McDermott was the "caller" for the square dances.

During the intermission, big bou-quet of flowers were presented to Mrs. Harold McConaughy and Mrs. Milbourne Barney. Snapp explained that the big bouquets were given to two of the guests instead of small nosegays to each of the ladies.

On the committee that arranged the Ladies Night party were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar McFadden, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McFadden, Dr. and Mrs. D. E. Mossbarger.

BEFORE the dancing started, Snapp made several announcements—a county-wide (four clubs) Lions meeting at Jeffersonville April 4; the zone meeting at Sedalia March 13; plans to send a delegation to the district convention at Troy on April 28 and the club's "community sale" March 30 in the Town Hall at Bloomington.

The club president went into considerable detail in outlining the community sale plans. He said it would start at 11 a. m. and that the club would serve lunch. Jess Schlichter will be the auctioneer. Members of the club were designated to solicit things for consignment or donation for the sale in their own communities, since many of them live in the rural area outside of Bloomington.

What will be put up for auction at the sale? Just about anything, from farm machinery to household effects and personal trinkets. The club will take a percentage from the consignment sales and the returns from things donated, Snapp explained.

St. Louis Sees New Gasoline Price War

ST. LOUIS — Motorists here were enjoying another gasoline price war today.

Cuts in the retail price ranged from two to three cents with some major oil companies lowering the price on regular to 26.9 cents and premium to 29.9 cents a gallon.

Independent stations reported a three-cent cut on regular to 21.9 cents and two-cent drop on premium to 25.9.

No specific cause for the outbreak of the war again was given but a spokesman for one major company noted St. Louis was one of the most competitive gasoline retailing spots in the nation.

Mansfield Asking Lima Air Route Cut

WASHINGTON — Mansfield, Ohio, has asked the Civil Aeronautics Board to drop Lima, Ohio, as a stopover point for Lake Central Airlines and thus reduce flying time by 57 minutes in a direct Mansfield-Detroit route.

The airline serves Lima on an east-west route also serving Mansfield but has been authorized to start Lima-Toledo-Detroit service March 19.

In its request, Mansfield said dropping the Lima stopover would not only cut down flying time, but would reduce the air mileage by 66 miles and would save passengers $3.80 on each one-way fare.

City School Bond Sale Held Up by Legal Counsel

Plans for Additions Studied by Board At Monday Meeting

The Washington C. H. Board of Education was advised by its legal counsel (by letter) that the $645,000 bonds voted last November for a building program "should not be sold until after the work of the Citizens Committee is completed."

The letter from Bricker, Marburger, Ewalt and Barton was read at the board's regular meeting, postponed from Feb. 18, Monday night.

A letter from the Ohio Water Service Co. attorneys in Youngstown also was read. It said "we (the Water Co.) are quite willing to wait any reasonable time while you solve the difficulties you are facing."

The Water Co. letter concerned the agreement (not an option) of the school board to purchase a 30-acre site at Elm and Willard Sts. for the proposed new Eastside School. Under that agreement, purchase of the tract was contingent upon the approval of the bond issue and sale of the bonds.

The board by official action, accepted the 63-acre tract at the east edge of the city which had been transferred from the Miami Trace school district to the Washington C. H. school district. This was considered a mere formality, in view of the previous action of the county commissioners and city council authorizing the annexation of this area to the city. Known as the Brownell-Gilmore tract, it is now being developed for residential purposes.

Richard P. Rankin, father of two of the eight pupils he said live in the city and are now attending Wilson School on a private tuition basis, asked the Washington C. H. board to assign all eight children to the Miami Trace district.

THESE PUPILS, he said he was told, could not be provided transportation by the Miami Trace board, under the law, unless they were officially assigned to Wilson School by the Washington C. H. board. He said parents have been taking their children to and from school since the Miami Trace board's policy statement last Thursday, following the transfer of the 63-acre tract to the city district.

Eleven boys and girls who live in the transferred area are now attending the Eastside School in the city.

The board took Rankin's request under advisement after explaining to him that if the eight pupils living in the city are assigned to the Miami Trace district, the city district would have to pay the tuition. It also was explained to him that the tuition and assignment of pupils made a problem to be worked out by the two boards.

After the board approved the payment of $2 routine bills and the meeting was adjourned, the board members remained to go over detailed plans submitted by Keil & Laughlin, Lima architects, for two-room additions to the Rose Ave. and Cherry Hill schools.

Emphasizing a desire to provide more elementary classrooms as soon as possible, the board went over enrollment figures which showed an increase from 1,282 to 1,336 in the elementary schools since school started last fall.

Truck Theft Ring Members Arrested

CANTON (AP)—A Canton man who police described as a member of a ring of thieves who stole trucks in seven states and brought them here to dismantle them for parts and scrap is under arrest here.

He was identified by officers as Courtland Earl Johnston, 26. His preliminary hearing on a charge of violating the Dyer Act was set for March 1 by U.S. Commissioner J. Stewart Ake shortly after his arrest Monday. Four men arrested earlier admitted taking part in the thefts, which started a year ago, detectives said.

IT'S SO EASY TO PLACE A WANT AD

ment for the two-year period ending next June 30.

The O'Neill budget disclosed that the state had not been for unexpected expenses during the present two-year fiscal period, would have had a surplus of about $33 million in revenues above spending appropriations.

But the present Legislature must appropriate nearly $54 million to meet its obligations for the current two-year periods for schools and care for the aged. These are called deficiency appropriations. They will amount to $22 million for the school subsidy and $12 million for the aged.

After the two deficiency appropriations, an estimated $60 million in surplus will remain in the state treasury.

The $60 million surplus, even after deficiency appropriations, approaches the state record. It was anticipated that O'Neill would draw upon this surplus to balance the 1956-57 budget. Such a precedent was set two years ago when Lausche took $10 million from the previous biennium's surplus to balance his budget.

Lawmakers returned to their eighth work week Monday night with a couple bushel bills in their pockets—enough to bring the session total to 689. Among them were measures to:

Bar independent candidates from seeking office on a party ballot for four years.

Include elected state officials under workmen's compensation.

Allow teachers severance pay for unused sick leave up to 90 days.

Permit teachers to take sabbatical leaves.

Guarantee teachers an uninterrupted 30-minute lunch period.

Lift the $65-a-month top award to the aged and remove the American citizenship requirement (described as an O'Neill administration bill).

cover such an amount probably would require from five to six tenths of a mill.

Marlyn Riley, former president of the board of trustees, recalled that the first bond issue for the hospital had been seven-tenths of a mill, which now has been reduced to .35 of a mill. The second bond issue for a new west wing, for rooms and beds only, had cost $125,000 over a five year period at .25 of a mill. This will be completely paid out this year, he said.

HE ALSO called attention to the fact that bonds issued for the hospital had reached a point in reduced taxes brought past payments, whereby a new issue, such as suggested, would not increase taxes beyond the amount originally charged against taxpayers for the issues now being paid off.

Members of the hospital's medical staff, present, also answered questions and presented their views.

It was pointed out that the hospital here has paid its own way without a maintenance levy since it was opened, something which no other county hospital in this region or in many other states has done.

It was stated that financial aid from the federal government, for improvements needed, had been applied for, but there was no assurance as yet, that it would be granted, owing to the many applications from other places without any satisfactory hospital service.

Members of the advisory committee, representing all parts of the city and county, are:

Bloomington Lions Give Party for Ladies

Monday night was Ladies Night for the Bloomington Lions Club—and a dinner dance was held at the Country Club here.

Seated at the dinner tables were 127 Lions, their ladies and guests from the Washington C. H., Good Hope, Sedalia and South Solon clubs.

There was a brief business session presided over by President Wilbur Snapp, and after that, "fifty-fifty" dancing for the rest of the evening.

Music for the dance was provided by Vic Tooker and the Boys from Wilmington. Clarence McDermott was the "caller" for the square dances.

During the intermission, big bouquets of flowers were presented to Mrs. Harold McConaughy and Mrs. Milbourne Barney. Snapp explained that the big bouquets were given to two of the guests instead of small nosegays to each of the ladies.

On the committee that arranged the Ladies Night party were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar McFadden, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McFadden and Dr. and Mrs. D. E. Mossbarger.

BEFORE THE dancing started, Snapp made several announcements—a county-wide (four clubs) Lions meeting at Jeffersonville April 4; the zone meeting at Sedalia March 13; plans to send a delegation to the district convention at Troy on April 28 and the club's "community sale" March 30 in the Town Hall at Bloomington.

The club president went into considerable detail in outlining the community sale plans. He said it would start at 11 a. m. and that the club would serve lunch. Jess Schlichter will be the auctioneer.

Members of the club were designated to solicit things for consignment or donation for the sale in their own communities, since many of them live in the rural area outside of Bloomington.

What will be put up for auction at the sale? Just about anything, from farm machinery to household effects and personal trinkets. The club will take a percentage from the consignment sales and the returns from things donated, Snapp explained.

St. Louis Sees New Gasoline Price War

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Motorists here were enjoying another gasoline price war today.

Cuts in the retail price ranged from two to three cents with some major oil companies lowering the price on regular to 26.9 cents and premium to 29.9 cents a gallon.

Independent stations reported a three-cent cut on regular to 21.9 cents and two-cent drop on premium to 25.9.

No specific cause for the outbreak of the war again was given but a spokesman for one major company noted St. Louis was one of the most competitive gasoline retailing spots in the nation.

Mansfield Asking Lima Air Route Cut

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mansfield, Ohio, has asked the Civil Aeronautics Board to drop Lima, Ohio, as a stopover point for Lake Central Airlines, and thus reduce flying time by 57 minutes in a direct Mansfield-Detroit route.

The airline serves Lima on an east-west route also serving Mansfield but has been authorized to start Lima-Toledo-Detroit service March 19.

In its request, Mansfield said dropping the Lima stopover would not only cut down flying time, but would reduce the air mileage by 66 miles and would save passengers $3.80 on each one-way fare.

Methodist Men & Young Women from Foreign Lands Happy Here

New Holland-Atlanta Group To Be Host

Serving in the New Holland church will start at 5 p. m. and continue as long as the hungry are waiting to eat. The supper is open to the public.

Around 250 were served at last year's supper and a spokesman for the committee said it was hoped that there would be even more this year.

The Methodist men of the two churches have been meeting together once a month for several years. They also have been carrying out projects, such as this supper, almost since the group was formed.

Atlanta and New Holland, only three miles apart, are served by the same pastor, the Rev. Glenn Robinson, and have many similar interests. There are an average of around 35 men in the group. Howard Sommers, who lives in Atlanta but goes to the New Holland church, is president of the group.

THE MEN will not only be the hosts for the Thursday night supper, but also will don aprons and chef's caps to do the cooking, serving and even the dish washing after it's all over.

Profits from the supper will go into a fund for doing whatever is needed at either church. Right now, it was said, signs are set on redecorating the New Holland church, and some of the supper profit may go to help that along.

Besides, the group likes to have a little money in its pocketbook for occasional special speaker at its joint meetings and for doing a little something extra at a church party, it was said.

Arson Hinted In Cleveland Fatal Blaze

CLEVELAND (AP)—Firemen suspect arson in a blaze which killed an 18-month-old child and injured five other members of the same family at an east side apartment early today.

The body of the child, William Lee Crittenden, was found in a burned-out bedroom of the third floor apartment.

Other members of the family jumped from windows or fled down the stairs. Fire Battalion Chief Charles Schmitt said the fire apparently started outside the locked kitchen door.

Earnestine Crittenden, 15, in critical condition with multiple fractures received in jumping to the ground.

Mrs. Lula Mae Crittenden, 22, mother of the dead child, leg and head injuries received when she jumped.

Earlene Crittenden, 13, smoke poisoning. She fled down the stairs with Hubert Woods, 18, who escaped injury.

Henry Cabot Lodge Drops His 'Jr.'

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The chief U. S. delegate to the United Nations will be known hence forth as Henry Cabot Lodge, without the "jr."

Associates report Lodge has decided to drop the "jr." which appeared on his birth certificate. He was named for his grandfather, a Massachusetts senator. His father was George Cabot Lodge.

Eight young women from four foreign countries, who have come to Washington C. H. to make their homes, left no doubt they are happy to be here as they told about family life, social customs, religion and schools in their native lands at Monday night's meeting of Delta Kappa Gamma at the home of Miss Jane Trent. Most, but not all, of the guests, were war brides. In giving their views of America, they said that before they came here they thought all Americans carried guns (impressions from Western movies) and that everyone had plenty of money (impressions from tourists). They all agreed life in America is easier, especially for the housewife, because of the modern appliances. They also said they were impressed by America's plentiful supply of food and clothing and other necessities of life, the highways and number of automobiles. Members of the Foreign Friendship Club at the meeting (picture above) were Mrs. Fred Armbrust (Germany), Mrs. Jack Bryant (Germany), Mrs. Harry Winter (Germany), Mrs. Donald Markley (England), Mrs. Guy Carter (England), Mrs. Jack Mastin (France), Mrs. Kenneth Curl (Scotland) and Mrs. David Matson (Germany). '57 Human Relations Award Goes to Cleveland Leader

CLEVELAND (AP)—A. M. Luntz, Cleveland, recipient of the 1957 Human Relations Award of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, was guest of honor Sunday night at a $50-a-plate dinner attended by 1,000 civic, business and religious leaders.

Luntz, president of the Luntz Iron & Steel Co., was honored for his 40 years work in the cause of brotherhood. He was given a silver plaque which called him "a true brother in the family of man." The presentation was made by Dr. Everett R. Clinchy of New York, president of the conference.

U.S. Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) told the gathering that the principles of civic friendship and common sense are the foundation upon which a permanent solution must be built in the Middle East. Neither sanctions nor denunciatory resolutions will contribute anything, in the long run, toward solving the problems in that area, the senator said.

A message from President Eisenhower offering congratulations to NCCJ members and others who have helped in the success of National Brotherhood Week was read by Gov. C. William O'Neill. It said:

"I join you in the hope that the inspiration of this week will continue to work throughout the year for the benefit of the nation."

A resolution commending Luntz, which was sponsored in the Ohio House of Representatives by the Cuyahoga County delegation, was read by former U.S. Sen. Thomas A. Burke of Cleveland, northern Ohio brotherhood chairman.

Long a leader in Jewish life, Luntz has held every local office of the NCCJ. For the last four years he has been a national vice chairman, which places him in charge of the northeastern division, comprising the New England and North Atlantic states and Ohio.

He was president of the Welfare Federation and the Board of Education in Canton before coming to Cleveland in 1939. In the depression years he set up relief stations and manned several of them himself, often working as long as 18 hours a day to help less fortunate persons.

Luntz' family was singled out for a special tribute at Sunday's dinner. With him were his wife, Fannie; their four sons, Robert, Richard S., William L., and Theodore M., all vice presidents of his company; their daughter, Mrs. George V. Gould, whose husband is president of International Molded Plastics, Inc., and four of their 17 grandchildren.

CONSTIPATED?

new laxative discovery
un-locks bowel blocks without gag, bloat or gripe

Constipation is caused by what doctors call a "thrifty" colon. A "thrifty" colon is one that, instead of retaining moisture as it should, does the opposite: robs the colon of so much moisture that its contents become dehydrated, so dry that they block the bowel; so shrunken that they fail to excite or stimulate the urge to purge that propels and expels waste from your body.

TO REGAIN NORMAL REGULARITY two things are necessary. First, the dry, shrunken contents of your colon which now block your bowel must be re-moistened. Second, bulk must be brought to your colon to S-T-R-E-T-C-H STIMULATE it and so, excite its muscles to action; to a normal urge to purge.

AND, OF ALL LAXATIVES, only COLONOID, the amazing new laxative discovery possesses COLONOID's great moisturizing capacity plus COLONOID's stretch-stimulating bulk that activates normal colonic reflexes. So effective that it relieves even chronic constipation overnight, COLONOID is yet so smooth, so gentle it has been proved safe even for women in the most critical stages of pregnancy. SUPERIOR TO OLD STYLE bulk, salt or drug laxatives, COLONOID neither gags, bloats nor gripes; does not interfere with your absorption of vitamins and other valuable food nutrients; and in clinical tests, did not cause rash or other side reactions. IT'S A PHYSIOLOGICAL FACT: Exercise tones your body! And COLONOID exercises your colon to tone it against constipation, overnight! Whether occasional, frequent or chronic, whatever your degree of constipation, get COLONOID, in easy-to-take tablet form at any drug counter, today! The price, only 98c for the economical 60 tablet package, brings you positive relief at less than 2c per tablet.

High Court Rules Against Railroader

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court has decided 8-1 that a railroad may not be held liable for damages to a conductor injured when a train was stopped suddenly to avoid hitting an automobile loaded with school children.

The case, decided in favor of the Pennsylvania Railroad, involved the claim of Virgil Herdman, a freight conductor who said he suffered permanent injuries when thrown to the floor of a caboose by an emergency stop in Dayton, Ohio.

"The engineer said he made the quick halt because a car full of children ran onto the tracks at a crossing ahead of him in 1951."

Methodist Men To Have Supper

New Holland-Atlanta Group To Be Host

The New Holland and Atlanta Methodist Men's group today is getting ready for its second annual sausage and pancake supper Thursday.

Serving in the New Holland church will start at 5 p. m. and continue as long as the hungry are waiting to eat. The supper is open to the public.

Around 250 were served at last year's supper and a spokesman for the committee said it was hoped that there would be even more this year.

The Methodist men of the two churches have been meeting together once a month for several years. They also have been carrying out projects, such as this supper, almost since the group was formed.

Atlanta and New Holland, only three miles apart, are served by the same pastor, the Rev. Glenn Robinson, and have many similar interests. There are an average of around 35 men in the group. Howard Sommers, who lives in Atlanta but goes to the New Holland church, is president of the group.

THE MEN will not only be the hosts for the Thursday night supper, but also will don aprons and chef's caps to do the cooking, serving and even the dish washing after it's all over.

Profits from the supper will go into a fund for doing whatever is needed at either church. Right now, it was said, sights are set on redecorating the New Holland church, and some of the supper profit may go to help that along.

Besides, the group likes to have a little money in its pocketbook for occasional special speaker at its joint meetings and for doing a little something extra at a church party, it was said.

Arson Hinted In Cleveland Fatal Blaze

CLEVELAND (AP)—Firemen suspect arson in a blaze which killed an 18-month-old child and injured five other members of the same family at an east side apartment early today.

The body of the child, William Lee Crittenden, was found in a burned-out bedroom of the third floor apartment.

Other members of the family jumped from windows or fled down the stairs. Fire Battalion Chief Charles Schmitt said the fire apparently started outside the locked kitchen door.

The injured were Mrs. Willie Belle Crittenden, 43, who jumped from a window with her two-year-old daughter, Shirley Ann. The mother is in critical condition with leg injuries and burns. The daughter suffered arm and shoulder injuries.

Earnestine Crittenden, 15, in critical condition with multiple fractures received in jumping to the ground.

Mrs. Lula Mae Crittenden, 22, mother of the dead child, leg and head injuries received when she jumped.

Earlene Crittenden, 13, smoke poisoning. She fled down the stairs with Hubert Woods, 18, who escaped injury.

8 Young Women from Foreign Lands Happy Here

Eight young women from four foreign countries, who have come to Washington C. H. to make their homes, left no doubt they are happy to be here as they told about family life, social customs, religion and schools in their native lands at Monday night's meeting of Delta Kappa Gamma at the home of Miss Jane Trent. Most, but not all, of the guests, were war brides. In giving their views of America, they said that before they came here they thought all Americans carried guns (impressions from Western movies) and that everyone had plenty of money (impressions from tourists). They all agreed life in America is easier, especially for the housewife, because of the modern appliances. They also said they were impressed by America's plentiful supply of food and clothing and other necessities of life, the highways and number of automobiles. Members of the Foreign Friendship Club at the meeting (picture above) were Mrs. Fred Armbrust (Germany), Mrs. Jack Bryant (Germany), Mrs. Harry Winter (Germany), Mrs. Donald Markley (England), Mrs. Guy Carter (England), Mrs. Jack Mastin (France), Mrs. Kenneth Carlson (Scotland) and Mrs. David Matson (Germany). '57 Human Relations Award Goes to Cleveland Leader

CLEVELAND (AP)—A. M. Luntz, Cleveland, recipient of the 1957 Human Relations Award of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, was guest of honor Sunday night at a $50-a-plate dinner attended by 1,000 civic, business and religious leaders.

Luntz, president of the Luntz & Steel Co., was honored for his 40 years work in the cause of brotherhood. He was given a silver plaque which called him "a true brother in the family of man." The presentation was made by Dr. Everett R. Clinchy of New York, president of the conference.

U. S. Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Ill.) told the gathering that the principles of civic friendship and common sense are the foundation upon which a permanent solution must be built in the Middle East.

Neither sanctions nor denunciatory resolutions will contribute anything, in the long run, toward solving the problems in that area, the senator said.

A message from President Eisenhower offering congratulations to NCCJ members and others who have helped in the success of National Brotherhood Week was read by Gov. C. William O'Neill. It said:

"I join you in the hope that the inspiration of this week will continue to work throughout the year for the benefit of the nation."

A resolution commending Luntz, which was sponsored in the Ohio House of Representatives by the Cuyahoga County delegation, was read by former U. S. Sen. Thomas A. Burke of Cleveland, northern Ohio brotherhood chairman.

An Increase In Use of Library Books

People of Ohio are making greater use of public library facilities than ever before.

This is borne out by reports from the Carnegie Public Library in Washington C. H. from which, local librarians say, that in books called for at the library itself and in the number of books circulated through the county schools, other places in the county, the increase in use of library books has been heavy. The gain in number of books called for in Washington C. H. has shown a marked increase, they declare.

Quite recently State Librarian Walter Brahm declared that year-end reports for 1956 indicated a very pronounced use of library books. He indicated further that he believed book circulation in particular was far from being depressed by competition from television and wide-screen movies for the spare-time attention of people in this state; that new and popular forms of recreation is actually boosting book circulation.

"Scientific inventions from the turn of the century, beginning with the bicycle, have stimulated reading," Mr. Brahm declares, "and it is safe to assume that future inventions will continue to make people dependent upon reading. Books and libraries are here to stay. The more complicated life becomes, the more we will need and use them."

Some librarians are reported to be holding the opinion that the reading interests of the younger generation are being broadened by television and movies, and that these outside interests are bringing about a desire on the part of the young readers for books on subjects which formerly were considered years ahead of their ability.

State reports indicate that novels are still more popular than science studies, histories, and books on how to fix kitchen sinks; but some librarians say that no-fiction circulation last year gained appreciably in both adult and juvenile categories.

Libraries may guide but cannot control reading tastes. Service to patrons is the prime concern. If borrowers show a preference for historic rather than fictional heroes, for informational rather than literary works, public libraries must expand listings of biographies and manuals accordingly.

U. S. Renaissance Foreseen

NEW YORK (AP)—Leopold Stokowski, foreseeing the coming of American renaissance, called today for "a higher standard of inner living."

Now nearing 75, Stokowski, for nearly half a century one of the world's most controversial symphony orchestra conductors, said:

"Athens had its great period Italy had its Renaissance. And America is going to have its renaissance, too. I feel we are seeing its initial phase now."

"There has been a great development of public taste in the United States. America is not musically illiterate. It is growing and evolving musically—very fast."

Recalling that when he first came to this country from Europe in 1905 the only well-known symphonies were in Boston, New York and Chicago, Stokowski said:

"Now every university has one, and many high schools do, too. We have vastly more orchestras than any other country of the world of comparable size."

The maestro, now conductor of the Houston Symphony, sees the increasing leisure afforded by the machine age as the first step toward the creation of a world-inspiring cultural renaissance here.

"We have already the highest standard of living of any country in history," he observed. "That is, in terms of physical and material things—food, clothing, housing and transportation."

"What we need to concentrate on now is a high standard of living for the inner life—thought, religion, the arts, science, imagination, sensitivity to nature and human relations—everything that goes on inside us."

Stokowski conducts an interview as he does an orchestra, with a mixture of charm and

By Hal Boyle

Olympian aloofness. Time has whitened the maestro's famed Leonine mane, but, sitting in an armchair in his East Side apartment, he gestured now and then with his pale, eloquent hands as if calling on invisible violins to emphasize a remark.

Once, on asking him a question, I had the feeling of one who disrupts a concert by a loud and uncontrollable sneeze.

"I never discuss myself," replied Stokowski, and the concert resumed.

He said he thought America's cultural renaissance could be best stimulated by creating a higher standard of inner living among children. He has two small sons of his own, and derives personal satisfaction from a series of children's concerts given by the Houston Symphony.

Once a year the orchestra holds an art exhibit of children's paintings inspired by these concerts.

Progress Overruns Monuments

Few monuments of America's greatest period, the up-building period in the history of this country, have been preserved. Of course, there are an increasing number of markers but the original buildings and sites are preserved with difficulty and at great expense. The American Scenic and Historic Preservation Society is now engaged in commemorating the two hundredth anniversary of Alexander Hamilton by raising funds to restore his home, the Grange, which stood on what is now Kingsbridge Road in New York City. It is a noble task.

In these days when we hear so much about youth movements, it may be interesting to know that at 19, Alexander Hamilton was Washington's Aid-de-Camp with the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel and that at 23, he was a fighting general. When the Revolutionary War was over, he studied law for six months and was admitted to the bar and became one of the leading lawyers in the nation and secretary of the treasury in Washington's cabinet.

Kingsbridge Road in New York City is now a crowded area but Hamilton bought a farm there in 1800 and, in his day, it was a wooded hill overlooking the Hudson River. It was a farm far out of town but sufficiently near for a ride on a horse or in a horse-drawn carriage to the courts of New York. The house, designed by the leading architect of the day, John McComb, still stands although it is squeezed between two tall buildings. It is surprising how much of the original remains.

The plan is to move the historic building about 10 blocks on to property now owned by the city of New York and then to restore it to its original condition. It is indeed fortunate that as the city developed, the Grange was not torn down to make room for a tenement. The reason was that in 1880, it was bought by St. Luke's Protestant Episcopal Church which used it as a temporary chapel while a new church building was being erected. Then when it was in danger of being destroyed, George F. Baker and J. P. Morgan purchased the property and entrusted it to the care of the American Scenic and Historic Preservation Society.

Progress tears away even the markers that tell of the great up-building period when men of courage and daring built a great nation with sweat and toil and hard thinking. Alexander Hamilton was a student at Kings College which is now Columbia University. And the principal building of Columbia College is named after him—Hamilton Hall. And it was from Kings College that he volunteered in a regiment of artillery of which he soon became captain.

The great friendship that sprang up between Washington and Hamilton remained unabated until Hamilton was killed in a duel by Aaron Burr which deprived America of one of its wisest statesmen. Washington had so much affection for Hamilton that when the Grange was built, the first president sent Hamilton 13 gum trees. It is planned to plant similar trees so that the grounds commemorate George Washington as well as Alexander Hamilton.

Diet and Health Long Convalescence Is Not Always Wise

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Prolonged convalescence isn't always a good idea. In fact, the sooner you get back into the normal swing of things—and that includes work—following surgery or injury, the better off you are apt to be.

Best Judge

Every case, of course, should be judged on an individual basis. Your doctor is the best judge as to when you should get out of bed following a serious injury or an operation.

By and large, however, patients may be returned to work much earlier than is normally believed. Recent Air Force studies bear this out.

There is no definite evidence that this early return to duty by Air Force personnel is harmful, Col. Wenger reports.

Indeed, prolonged convalescence might do more damage. Remaining in bed for a long period is bound to affect your appetite and impair elimination. Both your metabolism and circulation slow down and your muscles begin to waste from inactivity. You're apt to lose weight.

There are psychologic problems, too. You tend to worry about yourself and long to return to your family and friends and your everyday activities.

CLEVELAND (AP)—Attorneys for Clifford O. Hansen, 60, Tiffin industrialist on trial on a charge of income tax evasion, have resumed cross-examination of Kenneth Cannon, chief of intelligence for the Internal Revenue Service.

Cannon testified last week about various interviews he had with Hansen. He said Hansen first denied existence of certain invoices on sales which were not on his books, but later admitted he had them.

WASHINGTON C. H., OHIO

An Increase In Use of Library Books

People of Ohio are making greater use of public library facilities than ever before.

This is borne out by reports from the Carnegie Public Library in Washington C. H. from which, local librarians say, that in books called for at the library itself and in the number of books circulated through the county schools, other places in the county, the increase in use of library books has been heavy. The gain in number of books called for in Washington C. H. has shown a marked increase, they declare.

Quite recently State Librarian Walter Brahm declared that year - end reports for 1956 indicated a very pronounced use of library books. He indicated further that he believed book circulation in particular was far from being depressed by competition from television and wide - screen movies for the spare - time attention of people in this state; that new and popular forms of recreation is actually boosting book circulation.

"Scientific inventions from the turn of the century, beginning with the bicycle, have stimulated reading," Mr. Brahm declares, "and it is safe to assume that future inventions will continue to make people dependent upon reading. Books and libraries are here to stay. The more complicated life becomes, the more we will need and use them."

Some librarians are reported to be holding the opinion that the reading interests of the younger generation are being broadened by television and movies, and that these outside interests are bringing about a desire on the part of the young readers for books on subjects which formerly were considered years ahead of their ability.

State reports indicate that novels are still more popular than science studies, histories, and books on how to fix kitchen sinks; but some librarians say that non-fiction circulation last year gained appreciably in both adult and juvenile categories.

Libraries may guide but cannot control reading tastes. Service to patrons is the prime concern. If borrowers show a preference for historic rather than fictional heroes, for informational rather than literary works, public libraries must expand listings of biographies and manuals accordingly.

U. S. Renaissance Foreseen

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Leopold Stokowski, foreseeing the coming of American renaissance, called today for "a higher standard of inner living."

Now nearing 75, Stokowski, for nearly half a century one of the world's most controversial symphony orchestra conductors, said:

"Athens had its great period Italy had its Renaissance. And America is going to have its renaissance, too. I feel we are seeing its initial phase now."

"There has been a great development of public taste in the United States. America is not musically illiterate. It is growing and evolving musically—very fast."

Recalling that when he first came to this country from Europe in 1905 the only well-known symphonies were in Boston, New York and Chicago, Stokowski said:

"Now every university has one, and many high schools do,

too. We have vastly more orchestras than any other country of the world of comparable size."

The maestro, now conductor of the Houston Symphony, sees the increasing leisure afforded by the machine age as the first step toward the creation of a world-inspiring cultural renaissance here.

"We have already the highest standard of living of any country in history," he observed. "That is, in terms of physical and material things—food, clothing, housing and transportation."

"What we need to concentrate on now is a high standard of living for the inner life—thought, religion, the arts, science, imagination, sensitivity to nature and human relations—everything that goes on inside us."

Stokowski conducts an interview as he does an orchestra, with a mixture of charm and

Progress Overruns Monuments

By George Sokolsky

Few monuments of America's greatest period, the up - building period in the history of this country, have been preserved. Of course, there are an increasing number of markers but the original buildings and sites are preserved with difficulty and at great expense. The American Scenic and Historic Preservation Society is now engaged in commemorating the two hundredth anniversary of Alexander Hamilton by raising funds to restore his home, the Grange, which stood on what is now Kingsbridge Road in New York City. It is a noble task.

In these days when we hear so much about youth movements, it may be interesting to know that at 19, Alexander Hamilton was Washington's Aid-de-Camp with the rank of Lieutenant - Colonel and that at 23, he was a fighting general. When the Revolutionary War was over, he studied law for six months and was admitted to the bar and became one of the leading lawyers in the nation and secretary of the treasury in Washington's cabinet.

Kingsbridge Road in New York City is now a crowded area but Hamilton bought a farm there in 1800 and, in his day, it was a wooded hill overlooking the Hudson River. It was a farm far out of town but sufficiently near for a ride on a horse or in a horse-drawn carriage to the courts of New York. The house, designed by the leading architect of the day, John McComb, still stands although it is squeezed between two tall buildings. It is surprising how much of the original remains.

The plan is to move the historic building about 10 blocks on to property now owned by the city of New York and then to restore it to its original condition. It is indeed fortunate that as the city developed, the Grange was not torn down to make room for a tenement. The reason was that in 1889, it was bought by St. Luke's Protestant Episcopal Church which used it as a temporary chapel while a new church building was being erected. Then when it was in danger of being destroyed, George F. Baker and J. P. Morgan purchased the property and entrusted it to the care of the American Scenic and Historic Preservation Society.

When I was a small boy in New York, I belonged to a city history club and we used to go on excursions visiting sites of historic significance. I recall that Washington lived in a house on Cherry Street which in the days of my childhood was a blighted slum and there was a house somewhere which bore a marker that James Monroe had once lived there. I recall visiting Mark Twain, with a group from the children's theater, in his house on Ninth St., and Fifth Ave., and way up in the Bronx was the residence of Edgar Allen Poe. I have looked for some of these buildings in recent years, to revisit scenes of my childhood but cannot find many of them.

Progress has ripped them away with the bang-bang of the steam shovel and the clatter of falling stone. Progress leaves a world without monuments, only with structures for rent and elevators that go up and down between office and the coffee bar where one eats doughnuts and drinks coffee and chews gum and discusses pensions and fringe benefits and how Marilyn Monroe is having a baby just as millions of other women will have babies about the same time.

Take tonsillectomy, for one example.

A survey of two large industries recently showed that employees lost 13.2 days work on the average while recovering from this relatively simple operation.

Days Lost
A public health survey showed an average of 9.1 days lost.

The Air Force, on the other hand, returned men to duty after only 7.7 days.

Experience with operations for hernia shows an even more marked difference.

Forsythe, program chairman, then introduced Miss Janice Gillen, an accomplished musician who played Paderewski's "Minuet in G," after which those present had the pleasure of meeting the state chairman for the Correct Use of the Flag of the United States of America, Mrs. Leonard McKee. Mrs. McKee spoke beautifully on the topic "Devotion and Glory to Old Glory."

A tea was then enjoyed, with Mrs. Thomas H. Parrett and Mrs. Loren Hynes presiding at either end of the exquisitely appointed tea table which was centered with a low arrangement of white mums and scarlet carnations.

Tea and Reception Honors Six New Members of the DAR

Mrs. Leonard McKee of Akron, State Chairman of the Flag of the United States of America Committee was the guest speaker when the Washington Court House Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution entertained at a George Washington Tea and Reception for new members in Fellowship Hall, Grace Methodist Church at two-thirty o'clock.

The Regent, Mrs. Thomas H. Parrett used the ritualistic opening which was followed by the Salute to the Flag and the singing of one verse of the "Star Spangled Banner," with Mrs. Walter Craig playing for the singing.

Mrs. Loren D. Hynes read the President General's message and Mrs. Millard H. Weidinger reviewed the "American Creed" by William Tyler Page.

Mrs. Weidinger, chapter registrar, read the names of the six new members as they came forward to be welcomed, Mrs. Robert P. Harris, Miss Opal Davids, Miss Marian Moore, Mrs. Frank Mayo, Mrs. Donald Stuart Wilson of Evanston, Ill., and Mrs. John W. Noble of Clarksburg. Mrs. Thomas H. Parrett, Regent, assisted by the Chaplain, Miss Golda Baughn, completed the welcoming ceremony and presented each new member with a scarlet carnation and a copy of the Chapter By-Laws.

Mrs. Robert Haigler introduced the High School senior girls who had taken the Good Citizenship Test this year, Jackie Lee Hoppes and Nancy Ann Sollars, both from Wayne High School, Good Hope. The high score pin and award went to Miss Sollars in this contest and each girl received a carnation.

Mrs. Willard Bitzer, chairman of Girl Homemakers, then presented a group of the girls modeling dresses and suits which they had made. There were entries from five different classes and the judges found it a difficult decision to make their selections. Junior cottons were modeled by Linda Forsythe and Kathy Allen; a dress-up cotton was shown by Karen Stephenson and Kay Heistand modeled a skirt and blouse. In the senior group, Mary Ann Creamer was first with a cotton, Susan Wissler modeled a dress-up sheath dress and Nancy Reno and Nancy Stephenson were smart in their wool suits. The girls placing top will be from all over the state during the State Conference in Dayton, March 18, 19, 20 of this year.

Mrs. John D. Forsythe, program chairman, then introduced Miss Janice Gillen, an accomplished musician who played Paderewski's "Minuet in G," after which those present had the pleasure of meeting the state chairman for the Correct Use of the Flag of the United States of America, Mrs. Leonard McKee. Mrs. McKee spoke beautifully on the topic "Devotion and Glory to Old Glory."

A tea was then enjoyed, with Mrs. Thomas H. Parrett and Mrs. Loren Hynes presiding at either end of the exquisitely appointed tea table which was centered with a low arrangement of white mums and scarlet carnations.

Guests accompanying the Daughters included Miss Iris Noble, Mrs. Lawrence Hoppes, Mrs. E. N. Sollars, Mrs. Ance Creamer, Miss Mary Beth Slaughter, Mrs. Glenn H. Heistand, Mrs. R. J. Stevenson, Mrs. L. M. Simon, Regent at Silver Lake; Mrs. Leonard McKee of Akron, Mrs. H. L. Ryland of Bucyrus, Mrs. C. W. Cutlip, Mrs. Gilbert Bidle, Mrs. Wayne Boyer and Mrs. Robert Angus. Mrs. Lang Johnson of Marion was an out-of-town member present.

Hostesses included Mrs. Willard Bitzer, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Robert Haigler, Mrs. Thomas Hancock, Miss Marie Marchant, Miss Helen Hutson, Miss Fannie McLean, Miss Sarah Durnell, Mrs. Howard Stewart, Miss Eva Thornton, Miss Essyle Thornton, Mrs. Roy Porter, Miss Ellen Hays, Mrs. Eva Van W. Woodard, Mrs. Ernest Lecka, Mrs. James Harsha and Mrs. Charles Wagner.

Pig Iron Prices May Climb Steel Industry Experts Say

CLEVELAND — There is speculation in the steel industry that recent advances in the price of iron ore and coal will boost the price of pig iron, "Steel" Magazine said today.

The weekly metalworking journal' arithmetical composite on base prices of finished steel moved up last week for the first time in 11 months, from $1.62 to $1.63 a net ton.

"Much of this is accounted for by rise in pipe prices," the magazine said.

"Steel" reported that an upward revision in the charges for extras was continuing. Extras are based on size, chemical content, finish, and treatment, and the charges for these are not included in the magazine's composite base prices.

However, another price index which "Steel" compiles with the help of the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics takes charges for extras into account. It is based on the 1947-49 prices which are taken as 100 per cent. On this basis the current average is 173.4 per cent, or up 4.6 per cent since Jan. 1.

Steelmaking scrap which has plunged downward in price from record heights, slid another 34 cents a ton in the week ended Feb. 20. "Steel" said it is $22.83 a gross ton—$13.34 under the December record. But the magazine added, last week's drop was the smallest of the decline and indicates a leveling off stage may be near.

Production of steel for ingots and castings rose a half point to 97.5 per cent of capacity in the week ended Feb. 24. Output at that rate is 2,495,503 net tons a week.

In eight weeks of this year the ingot rate has not been under 96.5 per cent of capacity and steel men queried by "steel" are reaffirming earlier predictions this year's production will set a new record, perhaps as high as 120 million tons.

Supplemental Idle Payment To Be Heart of New Debate

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Another storm is brewing in the Legislature over supplemental unemployment compensation, often called "SUB."

Two years ago the Legislature rejected a union-initiated plan for "SUB" payments in addition to state unemployment compensation for jobless workers.

The Ohio CIO Council, with the backing of other unions, then put the issue up to voters at the polls and got a resounding "No."

Leading a campaign against "SUB" was an industry-sponsored group called the Ohio Information Committee, with initials the reverse of CIO. OIC members said their organization would be reactivated for a new drive again. "SUB" is this session of the Legislature.

They said OIC would wage a campaign to show that the question at this session is unchanged since voters turned it down at the polls.

An administrative ruling prevents idle workers in Ohio from receiving "SUB" payments and state jobless benefits at the same time.

Union spokesmen expressed confidence that sentiment has changed in their favor and that legislative approval would make Ohio the 29th state to sanction "SUB."

Leaders of the Republican-controlled Legislature have promised a decision on the issue this session.

Two bills authorizing "SUB" are under study in the House Industry and Labor Committee.

One by a pair of Republicans would permit jobless workers to draw combined state benefits and

"SUB" payments to 65 per cent of their regular take home pay. The bill also would liberalize dependency allowances to permit maximum state benefits up to $45 a week for 26 weeks. The present maximum is $39.

The other proposal by two Democrats and a Republican deals only with "SUB" and carries no maximum.

"I do not believe that the state should interfere with the free collective bargaining process," they explained.

Legislators asserted the impending battle for "SUB" should be less one-sided this session.

They said labor has won over several former opponents and that foes in industry appear divided over another all-out fight.

Major companies in the rubber, steel and glass industries have signed bargaining contracts making thousands of Ohio workers eligible for "SUB."

One estimate said more than 650,000 workers have bypassed the ban on "SUB" with the aid of employers, reports indicated.

Attorneys said that could be done when "SUB" payments are made from a fund put aside specifically for each individual worker.

"SUB" plans in most labor-management contracts call for companies to put so much per hour per worker into a fund pool.

"SUB" payments come from that pool.

Ohio law, attorneys explained, regards payments from such pools as "retirement or pensions" which the state has ruled must be deducted from state unemployment compensation checks.

Railroads Lift Atlantic Embargo

WASHINGTON — The Assn. of American Railroads has lifted the general embargo on rail freight destined for export, coastwise and intercoastal handling which was declared at all North Atlantic ports Feb. 13.

Baby Said Beaten With Milk Bottle

CANTON — A young father said his wife beat their 7-month-old son with a milk bottle and a stick because the child cried.

Freddie Gamble, 23, told authorities he didn't stop her because she is expecting another child.

The baby, Calvin, was in fair condition at Aultmann Hospital with bruises and a high fever.

Gamble and his wife, Geraldine, age 23, were held without charge.

Cleveland '5' Voted as Top Team in State

Cathedral Latin Ousts Middletown in Ballot Among Sports Editors

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—No Cleveland school has ever won the state scholastic basketball championship. But Ohio's sports editors evidently have a hunch Cathedral Latin has more than an outside chance to take the Class AA crown this year.

Discounting the fact Middletown is defending champion, that the Butler County powerhouse has won 43 in a row, and that Jerry Lucas of the Middies is the most sensational junior cager in Buckeye history, 4 sports editors today voted Cathedral Latin into top spot in the final Associated Press poll of the championship.

The Middies were on the upper rung all season, but Cathedral Latin has been pushing for weeks. With 47 scribes voting in the final poll, compared to 44 a week ago, the Middies lost 82 points, more than enough to cost them the lead, although Cathedral Latin skidded two points under its previous total.

Only third-place Steubenville retained the place it held a week ago. The other nine members of the elite list were shuffled in the final ballot.

Cathedral Latin's city title was only the second it has ever won. The other came in 1945. This is the team's first unbeaten season. Middletown, with 43 in a row, is just three games away from the state's long-run record of 46, set more than a quarter-century ago by Dayton Stivers.

Middletown was held to its lowest total in two years in turning back Hamilton 48 to 36, but Lucas, in getting 28, climbed almost even with Shelby's Larry Siegfried for the state's scoring laurels. Siegfried, bothered by an injured foot, was held to 16 in the 64-40 win over Upper Sandusky.

Siegfried has 658 and Lucas 651, each in 18 games. Larry is averaging 36.6, Jerry 36.2, a difference of less than half a free throw per game.

Of the 10 top teams in Class AA, six have been beaten only once. The other four are "clean" as they dash into tournament play.

In Class A, where Troy-Luckey's Wood County champions continued to rule the roost by a wide margin, only sixth-place Reynoldsburg and eighth-place Springfield Township of Jefferson County, a newcomer to the top 10, have escaped defeat. The other eight have 22 losses on their combined records.

Tournaments are on all over the state this week in both classes.

By Saturday night only 83 of the 349 Class AA teams will be left in combat. The huge corps of 895 Class A squads will be trimmed to 63. Both divisions will be down to 16 by March 9, and to four by March 16. The surviving quarter in each class heads for Columbus and the state finals in Ohio State's new St. Johns Arena, March 22-23.

Here is how Ohio's sports editors rate the state's high school basketball teams in the final poll of the season. Shown are first place votes in parentheses, the poll points on a 10-9-8-etc basis and the won-loss records of the leaders.

Palmer Wins Top Prize in Houston Open

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Arnold Palmer moved on to Baton Rouge today after beating par on a tough back nine to win $7,500 in top money in the Houston Open.

The 27-year-old Latrobe, Pa., professional picked up the winter tour's richest check Monday with a final 69 for a 72-hole 279 that beat Doug Ford, former PGA champion, by one stroke.

Ford's $4,000 boosted his 1957 prize money to $12,585.83. Palmer's new championship jumped him from 11th place to runner-up with $9,762.50.

The final round on the Memorial Park course turned out to be a back nine battle among Palmer, Ford, Jimmy Demaret, Gene Bone — the Louisville unknown who led after 36 and 54 holes, and Bob Harris, who had posted a third-round 65.

Harris finished at 73 for a 281 that cost him $2,500. Demaret collected $2,000 for a 282, while Bone, with a final round 78, tied at 284 with Mike Souchak. Each won $1,600.

Dow Finsterwald of Athens, Ohio, posted a 74-72-70-73—289 to earn $377.50.

Xavier Shines In Win, but Buckeyes Lose

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Xavier University provided the bright spot Monday night in an otherwise gloomy college basketball picture.

The gloom came from Ohio State's 79-72 home court loss to a spirited Illinois team. The loss sent Ohio State back to third place in the Big Ten, behind Michigan State, and Indiana who are tied for first place.

Xavier's Muskies, though, had reason to celebrate, and celebrate they did with a 79-59 romp over Toledo at Cincinnati.

The Muskies were accepted to compete in the National Invitational Tournament, thus joining their cross-town rival, the University of Cincinnati Bearcats, who are also NIT-bound.

The Bearcats came up with a victory over another tournament-bound team. Cincinnati handed a 99-72 defeat to Miami of Ohio's Redskins who, as Mid-America Reference champions, will compete in the NCAA tourney.

In other activity, Youngstown University whipped St. Francis (Pa.) 76-67 for the 17th consecutive victory on Youngstown's home court across the last two seasons.

A Findlay, the host Findlay Oilers came from behind to edge the Bluffton Beavers 87-82 in a Mid-Ohio League game, and Mount St. Mary's defeated Steubenville 90-67.

M. A. (Mose) Shapoff, trainer of thoroughbreds, was a bathboy for the Indianapolis baseball team 48 years ago.

Cathedral Latin Ousts Middletown in Ballot Among Sports Editors

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—No Cleveland school has ever won the state scholastic basketball championship. But Ohio's sports editors evidently have a hunch Cathedral Latin has more than an outside chance to take the Class AA crown this year.

Discounting the fact Middletown is defending champion, that the Butler County powerhouse has won 43 in a row, and that Jerry Lucas of the Middies is the most sensational junior cager in Buckeye history, 4 sports editors today voted Cathedral Latin into top spot in the final Associated Press poll of the campaign.

The Middies were on the upper rung all season, but Cathedral Latin has been pushing for weeks. With 47 scribes voting in the final poll, compared to 44 a week ago, the Middies lost 82 points, more than enough to cost them the lead, although Cathedral Latin skidded two points under its previous total.

Only third-place Steubenville retained the place it held a week ago. The other nine members of the elite list were shuffled in the final ballot.

Cathedral Latin's city title was only the second it has ever won. The other came in 1945. This is the team's first unbeaten season. Middletown, with 43 in a row, is just three games away from the state's long-run record of 46, set more than a quarter-century ago by Dayton Stivers.

Middletown was held to its lowest total in two years in turning back Hamilton 48 to 36, but Lucas, in getting 28, climbed almost even with Shelby's Larry Siegfried for the state's scoring laurels. Siegfried, bothered by an injured foot, was held to 16 in the 64-40 win over Upper Sandusky.

Siegfried has 658 and Lucas 651, each in 18 games. Larry is averaging 36.6, Jerry 36.2, a difference of less than half a free throw per game.

Of the 10 top teams in Class AA, six have been beaten only once. The other four are "clean" as they dash into tournament play.

In Class A, where Troy-Luckey's Wood County champions continued to rule the roost by a wide margin, only sixth-place Reynoldsburg and eighth-place Springfield Township of Jefferson County, a newcomer to the top 10, have escaped defeat. The other eight have 22 losses on their combined records.

Tournaments are on all over the state this week in both classes.

By Saturday night only 83 of the 349 Class AA teams will be left in combat. The huge corps of 693 Class A squads will be trimmed to 63. Both divisions will be down to 16 by March 9, and to four by March 16. The surviving quarter in each class heads for Columbus and the state finals in Ohio State's new St. Johns Arena, March 22-23.

Here is how Ohio's sports editors rate the state's high school basketball teams in the final poll of the season. Shown are first place votes in parentheses, the poll points on a 100-point basis and the won-lost records of the leaders.

Xavier Shines In Win, but Buckeyes Lose

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Xavier University provided the bright spot Monday night in an otherwise gloomy college basketball picture.

The gloom came from Ohio State's 79-72 home court loss to a spirited Illinois team. The loss sent Ohio State back to third place in the Big Ten, behind Michigan State, and Indiana who are tied for first place.

Xavier's Muskies, though, had reason to celebrate, and celebrate they did with a 79-59 romp over Toledo at Cincinnati.

The Muskies were accepted to compete in the National Invitational Tournament, thus joining their cross-town rival, the University of Cincinnati Bearcats, who are also NIT-bound.

The Bearcats came up with a victory over another tournament-bound team. Cincinnati handed a 99-72 defeat to Miami of Ohio's Redskins who, as Mid-America Conference champions, will compete in the NCAA tourney.

In other action, Youngstown University whipped St. Francis (Pa.) 76-67 for the 17th consecutive victory on Youngstown's home court across the last two seasons.

A Findlay, the host Findlay Oilers came from behind to edge the Bluffton Beavers 87-82 in a Mid-Ohio League game, and Mount St. Mary's defeated Steubenville 90-67.

M. A. (Mose) Shapoff, trainer of thoroughbreds, was a batboy for the Indianapolis baseball team 48 years ago.

Eight drivers were fined and three others forfeited bonds for traffic violations in Municipal Court Tuesday morning with Acting Judge Edmond Woodmansee presiding.

Joseph Lucas, 28, of 1004 N. Washington St., Greenfield, was fined $35 and costs on a charge of reckless operation. His driving rights were suspended for 90 days.

Fined $5 and costs on charges of speeding were John Cecil Harris, 48, Bloomington; Virgil P. Bentley, 38, 626 Yeoman St., Thomas C. Rockhold, 23, 1137 E. Temple St.; Quentin Jones, 31, South Charleston; Charles Curtin, 36, near Washington C. H.; and Gladys N. Robinson, 57, New Holland.

In other action, Judge Woodmansee granted a request for jury trial filed by Hugh Gidding of 554 Washington Ave., through his attorney, Charles Hire, Gidding is charged with driving while intoxicated.

The case was continued until April. Gidding was picked up Saturday night on Route 22 east by Deputy Sheriff Lawrence Mickle.

Army, Guard Said Now in Full Accord

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Overton Brooks (D - La.) today announced "full agreement" between the Army and the National Guard on a compromise to end their dispute over compulsory active duty training for new Guard recruits.

Brooks, chairman of a House Armed Services subcommittee which has been considering the problem, laid the proposed agreement before the subcommittee in a closed door meeting today.

Indications were the group would approve. In such an event, approval by the full Armed Services Committee was taken for granted.

The heart of the agreement as Brooks outlined it is this:

The National Guard would be given the rest of this year in which to recruit youths 17 to 18½ years of age with the understanding they would be required to take only 11 weeks active training.

But they would have to enlist in time to complete 11 weeks training before next Jan. 1.

For new recruits over 18½ and having no prior military service, six months active duty training would be required, corresponding to the minimum requirement in other reserve programs.

The current 11 - week training program of the Air National Guard would not be affected.

Movie Chief Top Witness In Spy Trial

NEW YORK (AP) — Government counsel have identified Boris Morros, former Hollywood producer and music director, as a key prosecution witness for the trial here of three persons accused of spying for the Soviet Union.

Whereabouts of the Russian-born Morros have not been revealed, and his role in the case is "loose with mystery."

Morros was named Monday by Chief Asst. U.S. Atty. Thomas B. Gilchrist, Jr. as the "individual" mentioned in 14 overt acts allegedly involving the three defendants.

The overt acts in which Morros allegedly was a figure included meetings in New York, Paris, Vienna and Zurich, Switzerland. The government charges that the meetings were arranged for the exchange of data concerning the activities of the alleged spy ring.

Morros, 62, was named in the chamber of Federal Judge Gregory F. Noonan at a hearing on motions by George Wolf, counsel for Jack Soble, 53, a brush importer, and his wife, Myra, 52.

The Sobles and Jacob Albam, 64, foreman for a tea and spice company, were indicted recently on charges of seeking United States defense secrets for transmission to Russia. The three were arrested by the FBI Jan. 25.

Former Policeman Sentenced to Jail After Wrecking It

John Dilly, 22, of 808 Maple St., a former Washington C. H. policeman, is in county jail today, serving a 10-day sentence for doing approximately $30 worth of damage to the jail Saturday night.

Dilly, who was arrested late Saturday at the Rock Cottage, Route 35, south, on charges of disorderly conduct and resisting arrest, broke nine windows, several door hinges and sundry other pieces of equipment in the jail during that night. Sheriff Orland Hays said Tuesday morning: "he might have done more damage if some of the other prisoners hadn't stopped him."

Dilly was sentenced for the jail damage Monday by Common Pleas Judge John P. Case.

Besides the jail sentence, he is required to make restitution for the damage — estimated at about $30 by the Sheriff — within 60 days.

U. S. Foreign Policies Discussed By Jaycees at Meeting Here

The question of "Can U. S. Maintain World Leadership?" was taken up at Monday night's regular meeting of the Washington C. H. Junior Chamber of Commerce, but after a discussion that lasted nearly two hours, there was still no definite answer.

The topics for the discussions come from national Jaycee headquarters and, usually, with them come blanks, called "opinion ballots," for summarizing the views.

General Motors Sees Profits Cut

NEW YORK (AP) — Profits of General Motors Corp. were down 29 per cent last year from the record high of 1955 but they were still second best in history.

The huge auto company, largest manufacturing concern in the world, Monday reported a net profit of $847,396,000 for 1956.

This was equal to $3.02 a share. It compared with a profit of $1,189,477,000 or $4.30 a share in 1955, when auto industry sales in the U. S. smashed all prior marks.

BURBANK, Calif. (AP) — A loud crash attracted officer Ralph Cullen to an intersection in time to see an auto lurch away from a collision with a light post.

John Wright, 35, booked on suspicion of drunk driving, complained: "That pole jumped out and hit me."

However, there were no "opinion ballots" for this meeting; so, the conclusions of the discussions were not summarized.

One opinion stood out, however. The Jaycees were in general agreement that the United States should back the United Nations.

Two other questions arose out of the discussions: (1) Does the U. S. have world leadership now? and (2) How can economic aid be used best to further U. S. foreign policies, if it is used at all?

THE DISCUSSION, before the end was reached, branched out along several other lines, not the least of which were taxes and schools.

Four questions were developed in the discussion of the main questions: "Can U. S. maintain world leadership? They were: (1) Does your opinion count in shaping U. S. foreign policy? (2) What kind of world does U. S. want? (3) The U. N. — important to U. S. foreign policy? and (4) What decisions do we face in 1957?

John Craig was the discussion leader.

During the business session preceding the discussion, the Jaycees talked about the annual "clean - up, paint - up week" and teen - age road - o - date for which was tentatively set for late April.

Dr. Lawrence Burris reported on the district Jaycee meeting in Miami and William Williams on the Congressional Issues Clinic which he attended in Cincinnati.

THE GROUP was told that Frank Sollars, selected by the Jaycees as the county's outstanding young farmer, was one of six being considered for similar state honors. It was said 35 had been nominated for the state competition.

Omar (Jim) Schwartz was named delegate to the state Jaycee meeting and plans for a delegation to go to the national convention in Milwaukee were discussed.

As a part of this highway safety, the Jaycees are providing rust-proof nuts and bolts for license plates. They are in a jar at the Auto Club, handy to be picked up. They are free, but contributions may be left in the jar. It was said that last year, these contributions amounted to about $30.

Army, Guard Said Now in Full Accord

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Overton Brooks (D - La) today announced "full agreement" between the Army and the National Guard on a compromise to end their dispute over compulsory active duty training for new Guard recruits.

Brooks, chairman of a House Armed Services subcommittee which has been considering the problem, laid the proposed agreement before the subcommittee in a closed door meeting today.

Indications were the group would approve. In such an event, approval by the full Armed Services Committee was taken for granted.

The heart of the agreement as Brooks outlined it is this:

The National Guard would be given the rest of this year in which to recruit youths 17 to 18½ years of age with the understanding they would be required to take only 11 weeks active training.

But they would have to enlist in time to complete 11 weeks training before next Jan. 1.

For new recruits over 18½ and having no prior military service, six months active duty training would be required, corresponding to the minimum requirement in other reserve programs.

The current 11 - week training program of the Air National Guard would not be affected.

Movie Chief Top Witness In Spy Trial

NEW YORK (AP) — Government counsel have identified Boris Morros, former Hollywood producer and music director, as a key prosecution witness for the trial here of three persons accused of spying for the Soviet Union.

Whereabouts of the Russian-born Morros have not been revealed, and his role in the case is shrouded in mystery.

Morros was named Monday by Chief Asst. U. S. Atty. Thomas B. Gilchrist, Jr., as the "individual" mentioned in 14 overt acts allegedly involving the three defendants.

The overt acts in which Morros allegedly was a figure included meetings in New York, Paris, Vienna and Zurich, Switzerland. The government charges that the meetings were arranged for the exchange of data concerning the activities of the alleged spy ring.

Morros, 62, was named in the chamber of Federal Judge Gregory F. Noonan at a hearing on motions by George Wolf, counsel for Jack Sobel, 53, a brush importer, and his wife, Myra, 52.

The Sobels and Jacob Albam, 64, foreman for a tea and spice company, were indicted recently on charges of seeking United States defense secrets for transmission to Russia. The three were arrested by the FBI Jan. 25.

Former Policeman Sentenced to Jail After Wrecking It

John Dilly, 22, of 808 Maple St., a former Washington C. H. policeman, is in county jail today, serving a 10-day sentence for doing approximately $30 worth of damage to the jail Saturday night.

Dilly, who was arrested late Saturday at the Rock Cottage, Route 35, south, on charges of disorderly conduct and resisting arrest, broke nine windows, several door hinges and sundry other pieces of equipment in the jail during that night. Sheriff Orland Hays said Tuesday morning: "he might have done more damage if some of the other prisoners hadn't stopped him."

Dilly was sentenced for the jail damage Monday by Common Pleas Judge John P. Case.

Besides the jail sentence, he is required to make restitution for the damage — estimated at about $30 by the Sheriff — within 60 days.

He was scheduled to appear in Municipal Court on the original charges Monday morning, but his case was continued to March 5.

U. S. Foreign Policies Discussed By Jaycees at Meeting Here

The question of "Can U. S. Maintain World Leadership?" was taken up at Monday night's regular meeting of the Washington C. H. Junior Chamber of Commerce, but after a discussion that lasted nearly two hours, there was still no definite answer.

This was another of a series of Jaycee meetings here at which current world affairs are discussed.

The topics for the discussions come from national Jaycee headquarters and, usually, with them come blanks, called "opinion ballots," for summarizing the views.
